SVEEP: Electoral Literacy Club Meeting & Felicitation Event

An Awareness Meeting on SVEEP (Systematic Voters' Education and Electoral Participation) on election awareness was conducted by the Tiruvallur District Collector to emphasize the importance of democratic participation and responsible voting among citizens. The session highlighted the need for increased voter awareness, ethical voting practices, and the role of youth in strengthening the democratic process. Various aspects such as voter registration, the significance of informed decision-making, and the importance of participating in elections were discussed in detail.

NSS and YRC officials along with student volunteers attended the program and actively listened to the guidance provided by the district administration. The event served as an educational platform for students to understand their civic responsibilities. A total of three college NSS/YRC officials and 35 NSS volunteers participated in the meeting. Finally, the Tiruvallur District collector appreciated the efforts of institution by awarding certificates.
